

THE HELEN REHR CENTER

FOR SOCIAL WORK PRACTICE

SUPERVISORS – THE CORNERSTONE OF THE WORKPLACE

A Live In-Person One Day Workshop for Social Work Supervisors in Child Welfare

This interactive workshop will be limited to 20 participants. It seeks to:

- Facilitate understanding of the supervisor's role as teacher as well as manager.
- Encourage group supervision in addition to individual supervision, an effective tool in enhancing skills of social services staff in work with children and families.
- Enhance the supervisor's ability to deepen supervisee's appreciation of the central importance of a biopsychosocial assessment.
- Strengthen the supervisor's ability to increase supervisee's knowledge of the contributing factors that affect child safety and risk.
- Improve supervisor's ability to identify risk factor for secondary trauma at the individual, supervisory, and organizational levels.
